

PCB 10

[10-May-1991]

STATE OF VERMONT
PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT BOARD

In re: PCB Files No. 87.86, 86.50 and 86.04

NOTICE OF DECISION

PCB 10

Procedural History

Two parties filed complaints with the Professional Conduct Board alleging that the respondent, a member of the Vermont Bar, improperly had become personally involved with client and had represented adverse parties in a matter. Bar Counsel investigated the complaints and, in the course of the investigation, also investigated additional allegations, including that the respondent had filed litigation in the name of a non-existent person.

After investigation, Bar Counsel recommended that a charges be dismissed because the allegations cannot be proved by clear and convincing evidence, the standard of proof is required in professional conduct matters.

Notice of Decision

The Professional Conduct Board reviewed the recommendations of Bar Counsel and accepted them.

Accordingly, the complaints are dismissed.

Dated at Montpelier, Vermont, this 10th day of May, 1991.

PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT BOARD

By: /s/

J. Eric Anderson, Chair

/s/
Hamilton Davis

/s/
Anne K. Batten

/s/
Leslie Black

/s/
Joseph Cahill

/s/
Deborah S. Banse

/s/
Nancy Corsones

/s/
Donald Marsh